LIONS HEAR LEO SHAW

Leo Shaw, Lomita contractor, spoke to the Torrance Lions on the subject, "Barter Unlimited," recently.

The Lions learned how anyone may get anything from A (Auto Repair and Accountancy) to Z (Zipper Replacement and Zither Instruction) on Barter, in exchange for his or her spare time work.

The non-profit association is 300 strong, and embodies every trade, profession, and calling from obstetrician to mortician. Its members work among themselves in their spare time in such a way that each gets help from all the others in exchange for the work or surplus items.

Many of the group's affiliates are in the Lomita-Torrance area, and it is rapidly expanding elsewhere. One member recently got a new Chevy dump truck, and a Cadillac on Barter. Typical among the more popular items are leather goods, hand painted textiles, etc.

Student Joins Honor Society

Miss Rita Wycoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. N. Wycoff, 22405 Linda dr., was recently initiated into Trinity University's chapter of Alpha Chi, national scholastic honor fraternity.

Miss Wycoff, a senior, is majoring in Christian education at the Texas University.
